Capital Club 'forum for traders'

THE Premier yesterday received the Capital Club Bahrain executive management, led by Economic Development Board chief executive and club president Shaikh Mohammed bin Essa Al Khalifa, to mark the official opening of the club.

He lauded the idea of the club and its role in setting a favourable social, professional and economic climate for businessmen to meet and exchange their ideas.

The club is a reflection of economic and commercial development and would serve as a platform for businessmen and traders to discuss co-operation and vision for further progress, he said.

He was granted honorary membership of the club in recognition of his support to the economic sector and development programmes
