The High Criminal Court sentenced three defendants to one year behind bars each for attacking a Bahraini man. The defendants include a woman, aged 34. The first and second defendants, aged 22 and 15 respectively, are said to have mocked the victim’s wife after they got involved in a traffic row with her. The wife informed her husband about the incident after noting down the car’s registration number. And he went to them to settle the issue, according to court documents. “I asked them as to why they insulted my wife and one of them directly pushed me to the ground. They punched me and kicked me all over my body,” the victim told prosecutors. The third defendant is the sister of the 22-year-old man, who joined assault by beating up the victim using a wooden plank. The suspects caused severe injuries to the victim, who suffered three per cent permanent disability in one of his joints.

Businessman accused of laundering BD20m

A businessman and his business partner are said to have laundered BD20,000,000 by manipulating the accounts of a local telecommunication company, the High Criminal Court heard yesterday. The businessman, aged 38, was a board member of the telecommunications company and he made suspicious bank transfers, according to prosecutors. The money he netted from such transactions amounted to BD20m, according to court files. Moreover, he allegedly signed contracts between his company and another telecom company for the exclusive use of some Internet services, from which he generated BD14m. The businessman is said to have falsified account information to fool the owners of the company. The information showed that the company had managed to achieve profitability targets although it was not the case, the prosecutors say. “Such a trick allowed him to obtain profits of more than BD1.5m,” the prosecutors said. The businessman’s co-defendant was a board member of the company, and he abetted his crimes as he was giving approvals to the transactions despite the fact that he was aware of his misconduct.

Kuwait’s supportive stances towards Bahrain highlighted

Manama

Shura Council Chairman, Ali Saleh Al Saleh, has stressed that Kuwait’s constant honourable stances in support of Bahrain reflect the depth of the brotherly relations between the two countries, noting that Kuwait’s stances have contributed to enhancing comprehensive development. Mr Al Saleh was speaking while receiving here today the Kuwaiti Ambassador to Bahrain and the Dean of Diplomatic Corps, Shaikh Azzam Al Mubarak Al-Sabah. The Shura chairman pointed out that the deep-rooted Bahraini-Kuwaiti relations have resulted in advanced levels of bilateral coordination, cooperation and complementarity in many fields, especially the economic, investment, health, educational and social fields.

Prosecution witnesses will take the stand on October 21, 2018, to testify in the case of a senior official in the Ministry of Labour and Social Development, who is accused of embezzlement. The defendant, a manager with a department in the ministry, has been put on trial over accusations of pocketing around BD23,000 after she was assigned to collect money from Bahraini citizens who received the financial support, although they weren’t eligible. According to court files, the woman official was referred to investigations after she failed to hand over the entire amount collected by her to the finance
