

600 have fun at Irish Society celebration

SIX hundred people attended the Irish Society's St Patrick's Day celebrations at the Diplomat Hotel, last night.

The theme of the night was Irish Castles.

The evening featured a special display of Irish dances performed by a troupe of young girls, who were trained by former dance champion Bernadette Fegan and Eugene Barry.

Guest of honour was Labour and Social Affairs Minister Abdulnabi Al Sho'ala.

Other guests included the Irish Ambassador to the Gulf Michael Collins and other dignitaries.

An Irish band from Dublin, Full Circle, entertained during the evening with many hits from the 60s and 70s along with some of the more traditional Irish numbers.

The event was declared an absolute success and a highly enjoyable one by society chairman Martin Horan.

■ At the celebrations are Mr Al Sho'ala, Mr Collins and other guests